

Vale Park Demolition Chain of Responsibility

The chain of responsibility will, 'So far as is reasonably practicable', be:

- the overall responsibility for health and safety lies with the Managing Director;
- the Safety Director will keep the Board of Directors advised as to their health and safety responsibilities and those of the company;
- the company's health safety and environment adviser will advise on health, safety and environmental matters, and carry out obligatory monitoring of registered sites and facilities;
- managers will be responsible for the organisation of health, safety and environmental obligations on their site/facility and within their departments;
- site/facility managers and foremen are responsible for implementing this policy and the requirements of all health and safety legislation; and
- contractors will sign a declaration that they understand the parts of this policy relevant to them, site emergency procedures, etc., and are conversant with the Health And Safety At Work etc. Act 1974 and other relevant legislation.
