

Informal Introduction to Systemic Constellation Work with Marilene Metzler

SUNDAY 19th SEPTEMBER 2010
12 noon – 5.00pm

Aim of the day will be to explore :

- What do we mean by systemic thinking? Why family constellations?
- Looking beyond the individual and at the system that we belong to
- Introduction to the work of Bert Hellinger through some teaching and exercises
- Suffering and disease seen from a systemic perspective
- Setting up 2-3 constellations

This is an informal and mainly experiential day, a chance to explore the principles of systemic thinking and how it applies to all of us, through exercises, teaching (answering of questions), and setting up of constellations.

Venue: The introductory day will be held in Bagshot

[Full details upon booking]

Cost: £20 (free tea/coffee and biscuits will be provided)

£40 if you would like to set up a constellation

[Full refund given until 2 weeks before the workshop]

Booking deadline: 15th September 2010

This workshop is open to anyone with an interest in this work, who would like to find out more about this way of working and thinking

The workshop will be led by Marilene.

Marilene has completed 2 years of training in this field, and is acting as the course support for year 2 of the CSC training this year. She is also Judith Hemming's business manager for Movingconstellations.
